Serving God's Servants

TJI October, 2024 Report

Greetings from Jeff and Dale at The Jenkins Institute. We hope this monthly report finds you all doing well. We send this out to every church and individual who supports our work with our deepest appreciation for your encouragement, your prayers, and your support. Please feel free to share this with others who might be interested in this type of work.

Often times we hear others express their appreciation for our work with a comment about the fact that they don't know of anyone else who is doing this kind of work. These kinds of comments help reinforce the idea that is in our heart that this work is valuable, important, and meaningful. What we know is that we could not do any of this work without people like you.

During the month of September we remained busy in the work of our Lord. Dale Sumertown, the Fairview Church on a Sunday morning, an area wide Youth event at Shelbyville, homecoming at the Capitol Hill Church, and a Church Leadership Workshop at Freed Hardeman.

Jeff was blessed to speak at the Equip Workshop at Brown Street in Waxahachie, a Grief Seminar at Faith Village in Wichita Falls, and the European Vision Workshop in Albania. There were fourteen different nations represented at this great conference.

Together we were blessed to have a Better Conference in Kannapolis, NC. We are thankful to our old college buddy Kirk Sams for his great work in helping make this Better Conference possible.

We want to encourage every congregation to consider purchasing a copy of our new book, His Table, for every family in your congregation. If you are interested please feel free to reach out to us.
